2. PROMISE TO PAY.

- (a) Customer, shippers, consignees and bill-to parties are jointly and severally liable for the compensation of the Company for its services. The Company's charges may be reversed to the responsible parties if a shipment is refused or payment is not made by the original bill-to party. The compensation of the Company for its services shall be included with and is in addition to the rates and charges of all carriers and other agencies selected by the Company to transport and deal with the goods and such compensation shall be exclusive of any brokerage, commissions, dividends, or other revenue received by the Company from carriers, insurers, and others in connection with the shipment.
- (b) On ocean exports, upon request, the Company shall provide a detailed breakout of the components of all charges assessed and a true copy of each pertinent document relating to these charges.

If the services of a broker, forwarding agent or others (Collectively the "Agents") are utilized in connection with the payment of freight or other charges to any Agent, Customer agrees that such Agents act as Shipper's or Consignee's Agents for such purpose and not as Agents to the Company. Customer shall be absolutely and unconditionally responsible for payment to Company for all freight and other charges whether or not funds for payment of such freight and other charges have been advanced by Customer to Agents. If Customer provides funds to an Agent to pay freight or other charges due to Company, it does so at its own risk, and in the event such Agent converts such funds to its own use or for any other reason fails to pay them to Company, Customer shall remain absolutely and unconditionally liable to the Company for the payment of such freight and other charges. In no event shall any demand by the Company upon such Agent for payment constitute waiver or estoppel of Company's right to enforce Customer's undertaking herein.
